CARNEGIE BOOK SHADOWING EVENT

12 students are currently reading the shortlisted books – the three favourites at the moment are:

One by Sarah Crossan about conjoined twins coping with the outside world – this is a very moving and powerful book.

The Lie Tree by Frances Hardinge about a 14 year old girl on the cusp of adulthood dealing with being female, her father's death and the mysteries surrounding her – this book won the Costa book prize.

Five Children on the Western Front by Kate Saunders based on the characters created by E. Nesbit – this book is a delightful homage to the original and deals with the impact of the Great War.

On 12 May the Year 7 team won both their games. They competed against Ashlyn's mixed team and won 5 to 3 rounder's with Robbie McMinn (the only boy on the team) being awarded player of the match! In the second game they competed against Longdean, where they absolutely thrashed the team with a win of 8 to 1 rounder's with Ella Tywman being awarded player of the match. Well done Year 7 you deserved to win.

Student Success Story

After an eighteen month tour of the world with the National Theatre production of "War Horse", ex-student Thomas Larkin is now appearing in Stephan Daldry's multi-award winning production of "An Inspector Calls" by J.B Priestly. The West End show is currently touring the country playing theatres such as Wycombe Swan, Milton Keynes and Aylesbury Waterside.

Described by The Telegraph as "Superbly tense. Breathtaking daring & faultless execution". This production is well worth a visit.

...and we're very proud of Tom too!
